JULY 2018 VOLUME 21 ISSUE 1

DEDICATION OF EXIT

We are pleased to have the Camden County Board of Commissioners consider the proposal of Dedicating Georgia Interstate 95 - Exit 7 Interchange in honor of the 30 Fallen Patriots killed at the Thiokol Chemical Plant. Their actions on this matter is in response to a plea presented to the Commissioners back in February. Camden County recognizing its own people is huge step in educating the masses about their contribution to our nation and to humanity.

We Are Proud of their Service!!

Join us on August 7th at 6:00PM to witness Camden County Board of Commissioner's consideration and vote to honor and recognize the people that paved the way to Modern America!!

SOCIAL GATHERING EVENT

The 2018 Thiokol Site Workers' Gathering is a time to reunite these Pioneers that labored in unity supporting this nation. It's an opportunity for them to reacquaint themselves with those they have not seen in many years. Share their stories as only they know and can tell.

The event will be an all-day affair that will include an "All You Can Eat Feast" from 11:00am until 2:00pm. Guest's will enjoy a Low-Country Boil, Fried Fish, Hot Dogs, a varied selection of Salads, and a drink.

Tickets are available at our office located at 115 S. Lee St. in Kingsland, GA. The following is the ticket info:

Adults: $20.00
Kids: Under-10-$5.00
Youth: 11-17 $10:00

This is a gathering that you will not want to miss. Bring the kids with you. They will enjoy this scenic Park and its playground. This event will give those of us that appreciate their sacrifice and service an opportunity to personally meet these courageous Patriots and thank them for their service. Hopefully, we may learn more about them and this amazing inspirational chapter of American History.

2019 Annual Commemorative Ceremony

We are making major changes to the Annual Commemorative Ceremony format. The 48th Anniversary Commemorative Ceremony traditionally held outside has been moved to an inside venue out of the cold weather. February 3, 2019 falls on a Sunday so as to not interfere with Sunday Church Services, the Ceremony will be held in the afternoon. We ask all local Churches to commemorate the 10:53AM plant explosion by observing a moment of silence at that time during their normal worship. Then everyone is invited to join us at 3:00PM at St. Marys Middle School where we will remember and salute our Patriots and Heroes. Follow us on Facebook at Facebook.com/Thiokol to stay abreast of more plan details.
